SUBJECT — Investing the Yelandur Jahgirdar with the Powers of a Deputy Commissioner under Chapter 12 of Mysore Municipal Regulation

Sir

With reference to Government Notification No L 2529-Ml 183-26 -6 dated 8th November 1927 notifying Yelandur Municipality I have the honour to send enclosed an extract from letter No 117 dated 23rd February 1928 from the Agent to the Jahgirdar of Yelandur and copy of letter No 72/28-29 dated 1st October 1928 from the Jahgirdar requesting that Government may be moved to invest him with the powers of a Deputy Commissioner under Chapter 12 of Mysore Municipal Regulation and also to exempt all the Jahgirdar s properties from Municipal Taxation as in the case of Sringeri Municipality

I am not able to find out from the local records the practice obtaining in the Sringeri Municipality and the provision of law under which exemptions have been granted and the Jahgirdar or his Agent has been given the powers of a Deputy Commissioner As regards the Deputy-Commissionership the term Deputy Commissioner is not defined in the Municipal Regulation and it would therefore refer only to the Deputy Commissioner of the District There is no power reserved in the Municipal Regulation as there is in certain other laws such as in Police Regulation, to confer the powers of a Deputy Commissioner on a private person, nor is there scope for me to delegate my powers to the Jahgirdar under section 175 (2) of the Municipal Regulation as it specifically relates to delegation to an Assistant Commission-

UD

Commissioner in charge of a Taluk and does not empower me to delegate to a private person

As regards exemptions I invite reference to proviso of the section 59 of the Municipal Regulation This section does not include the exemption in favour of Jahgir Properties But the Government may in sanctioning the Rules for levying of tax under section 61 of the Regulation impose modification under (B)1 of that section so as to secure exemption of the Jahgir properties On receipt of Government Orders on this point I shall advise the Muricipal Coundil to frame rules accordingly

I have the honour to be

Your most obedient servant
